

Lincoln's Right to Farm Bylaw

The Town of Lincoln passed a Right to Farm Bylaw at Town Meeting on March 26, 2011. The Bylaw provides the following notice to residents and prospective residents.

“It is the policy of the Town of Lincoln to conserve, protect and encourage the maintenance and improvement of agricultural land for the production of food and agricultural products, and also for its natural and ecological value. This disclosure notification is to inform buyers and occupants that the property they are about to acquire or occupy lies within a town where farming activities occur. Such farming activities may include, but are not limited to, activities that cause noise, dust, and odors. Buyers or occupants are also informed that the location of property within the Town may be impacted by commercial agricultural operations including the ability to access water services for agricultural use under certain circumstances.”

Questions may be directed to the Lincoln Agriculture Commission through the Selectman's Office at 781-259-2600.
