

2023 LINCOLN SCHOLARSHIP COMMITTEE APPLICATION

The deadline for fully completed applications is Friday, March 31, after which no applications will be accepted.

IMPORTANT: For the Harriet Todd Scholarship, please refer to Part III on Page 3 of this application to determine your eligibility. To apply for the Community and Codman scholarships and the awards, applicants must be a resident of the Town of Lincoln.

PLEASE NOTE:

- 1) Applications will be considered more favorably if applicants document their efforts to apply for other scholarships, financial aid, and grants in addition to the Lincoln Scholarship Committee offerings.
- 2) While we have a similar name and mission to the Lincoln-Sudbury Scholarship Fund Dollars for Scholars, we are a separate organization and require applicants to complete a different application form. A separate application to each of the two organizations is necessary to be eligible for the various scholarships and awards offered by each.

If you are applying for an award, please fill in this first section of the application and continue to Part III. If you are applying for consideration for one of the Lincoln community scholarships or for the Codman Trust Scholarships please complete Part I and continue to Part II.

The dates for interviewing award and scholarship applicants is indicated at the end of the application form. Please note your availability there.
